

Implementation Specialist / Database Developer

Description

- Electsolve is seeking to hire a qualified Implementation / Database Developer who will work with our Project Managers and lead developers to deploy our product to market and upgrade existing systems.

Responsibilities

- Excellent communication skills with proven experience working with end users and customers
- Integrate existing database platforms in Oracle, MySQL, Sql Server, DB2, COBOL into a MS SQL Server Data Warehouse.
- Develop support scripts to support integrations
- Responsible for Management of timelines of project
- Synchronize databases on development to maintain a production quality builds
- Work seamlessly with the developers and customers
- Support Project Managers, as needed

Qualification Requirements

- Proven project delivery skills working with complex system integrations
- Data Analysis skills
- SQL Server 2008, 2005
- Knowledge of billing systems with multiple service types including electric, water, and gas
- Regression testing of stored procedures and applications.
- Synchronize databases with development to maintain production quality software builds

Benefits

- Dental, Vision, and Health Insurance
- A rewarding and challenging environment
- Travel required throughout the United States